LAFCU Named One of the Best Credit Unions to Work For in 2025

Lansing, Michigan-based organization honored for third time

The LAFCU team gathered at the 2024 All Staff Day, an annual event hosted by the credit union, where they announced their win as a 2024 Best Credit Union to Work For.

LANSING, Mich. — LAFCU is proud to announce it has been named one of the Best Credit Unions to Work For in 2025 by American Banker.

This marks the third time the Lansing, Michigan-based credit union has received this prestigious recognition, which highlights credit unions that excel in workplace culture, employee satisfaction, and organizational performance.

LAFCU was recognized in the largest asset category, which includes be intentional in creating a workplace where every team member is empowered to make a difference — not just in their daily work, but in the future of our organization. Whether it’s through innovation, collaboration, or shared purpose, our culture thrives because of the incredible individuals who choose to grow their careers here.”

The Best Credit Unions to Work For program was created to spotlight exceptional employers in the credit union industry. The selection process includes an evaluation of workplace policies and practices, which makes up 25% of the assessment, and an employee satisfaction survey, which accounts for the remaining 75%. Final rankings are determined by combining the results from both components.

From the survey of LAFCU staff, 92% of employees agreed they are very satisfied with LAFCU as their employer, and 90% said they are willing to give extra effort to help the organization succeed — reflecting the organization’s deep commitment to creating a supportive and mission-driven work environment.

LAFCU staff, volunteers, and former employees gathered for the credit union’s Multi-Cultural Day, sharing traditions from around the world with their families and each other.

As one employee shared:

“At LAFCU, I feel seen, heard, respected, and a true sense of belonging. That makes me want to give my best every day. We’re built on the promise of people helping people, and that’s what makes LAFUCU a place where others want to work. When you feel valued, it's easy to give back with passion and help the organization grow.”
